

Lift Every Voice and Sing

James Weldon Johnson, 1871-1939 –J. Rosamond Johnson, 1873-1954

Lift every voice and sing, Till earth and heaven ring,

Ring with the harmonies of liberty;

Let our rejoicing rise, high as the listening skies,

Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.

Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us

Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;

Facing the rising sun, of our new day begun,

Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod, bitter the chastening rod,

Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;

Yet with a steady beat, have not our weary feet,

Come to the place for which our fathers sighed;

We have come over away that with tears has been watered,

We have come, treading our path thro' the blood of the slaughtered,

Out from the gloomy past, till now we stand at last

Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God our weary years, God our silent tears,

Thou who has brought us thus far on the way;

Thou who hast by thy might, led us into the light,

Keep us forever in the path, we pray.

Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,

Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee;

Shadowed beneath Thy hand, May we forever stand.

True to our God, true to our native land.

The Shiloh Family: A Community of Faith

A Place To: BELONG, BELIEVE AND BECOME

We are followers of Jesus Christ. We proclaim the Good News of Jesus. We speak, teach share and live His Word.. We are ambassadors of Christ: His hands that touch lives, his feet going to all people and all places, His eyes—seeing in others what their Creator sees, His heart—loving others with amazing love of God.

We are not fans, we are sold-out followers of Jesus Christ, proclaiming and preparing the world for the One who said: “Behold I am coming soon!”
